

Unit 1 Session 2

All About Me -Independent Learning Assignment

“I would like you to make a poster that is all about you, who you are, what you appreciate about yourself, what makes you unique, and some of your assets. You might divide your paper into four sections for who you are physically, mentally, emotionally, and socially. You might use the basic shape of a house with different rooms and your assets supporting its structure. Or you can use any other basic shape – or none at all.

Directions:

In class students- create a poster board that is, “All About You” ---see above

E-learning Student- Create a PowerPoint slide that is, “All About You”-see above. You may copy and paste clipart and words that depict that message you want to convey.
